

“For women who enjoy the company of other women”

Who is Mixit Tallahassee? Women owned and operated, Mixit Tallahassee LLC creates and hosts events where women can meet and mingle in a safe environment. We primarily focus on organizing women-only events outside of the typical gay club scene, but we do offer full service lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, and queer (LGBTQ) event planning.

What is your mission and vision? It is the mission of Mixit Tallahassee to empower women who love women by providing a forum for expression where we are free to celebrate our contributions. We do this by creating a number of highly visible social events and activities designed to form friendship, create dialogue, and encourage personal empowerment. We exist to promote inclusion among LGBTQ people and beyond. Our vision is a society where women who love women embrace differences among us and by doing so, we thrive in a world where everyone recognizes, respects, and protects our contributions. We are much more than a collection of events; we are a symbol of expression!

Why focus on women in the LGBTQ movement? There is a tendency among the LGBTQ community to treat everyone’s issues the same, with little attention to the impact that culture, gender and other aspects of identity have on being a member of the LGBTQ movement. Among women, dimensions of difference exist in our experiences and perspectives. A women-only space is not simply a room filled with women; it’s an ideological and unbound space, where hierarchy in all its manifestation is challenged. We create this space to celebrate ourselves and to channel our energies. It is a place where we are free to be who we are; a place of self-discovery.

What makes your events unique? We create events to address and serve the specific and diverse needs of women of all ages, races, and walks of life. Single women and lesbian couples who have a zest for life and enjoy diverse activities benefit the most. Best of all, you don’t have to be “out” to participate. Our events are a friendly mixture of mellow socials, thought-provoking activities, and adventurous celebrations.
